

Behind s.O.d is Berlin-based artist Philipp Frank. He launched his career as the lead singer and songwriter of the alternative band ABBY, releasing two albums on Island Records. In the following years, he shifted his artistic focus toward electronic music, becoming a founding member of the internationally acclaimed live act GHEIST.

The year 2026 marks a fresh, uncompromising start for the singer, producer, and multi-instrumentalist.

With his debut as a feature artist on Monkeytown Records, he is stepping into the spotlight under s.O.d. for the very first time.
